Mr. Pratt Encourages Student Spirit and Enthusiasm

The 1976-1977 school year for Warren High students started on August 30. Everybody met in the gym to pay book rent and locker fees. Then their pictures were taken.

Even though the Ag program, Newswriting, and the French program had to be dropped, the Warren spirit never sagged. Our new principal, Mr. Pratt, helped keep this spirit going. Between football, volleyball, basketball, and track, the students got involved and backed each team.

New teachers to the WHS faculty are Mr. Allred, the guidance counselor, and Miss Tucker, the Home Ec teacher. Miss Tiffany is Mrs. Harter's new aide.

Is To Be One.

Christine Mahoney Reigns Over Pumpkin Festival

Many WHS students got involved in the Pumpkin Festival this year. The Senior Class dunking booth had little use due to cold weather. The Juniors had a food stand and bake sale to make money for the Prom. The Sophomores took orders for stationery, and the Freshmen had a food stand on Saturday. The FHA had their brat stand, and the W-Club sponsored a car bash, helping to make the 1976 Pumpkin Festival successful.

Memories of Junior-Senior Prom Are “Precious and Few”

Reigning over the 1976 Junior-Senior Prom at Chestnut Mountain Lodge on May 1 were Queen Jan Schubert and King Jeff Vrstal. The evening began with a buffet dinner followed by the crowning of the king and queen. The dance followed shortly thereafter.

Activities for post-prom included a hayride, the movie, “American Graffiti”, an informal dance from two to four, swimming, and breakfast at seven.

School Spirit Heightens During Homecoming Week

Homecoming spirited many students during the last week in October. On Monday, students dressed up in Halloween costumes; on Tuesday they enjoyed hopping at the sock hop during 4th and 5th hour. Banners, posters, and bulletin boards were displayed on Wednesday. Thursday students voted on the football player having the cutest and ugliest baby pictures and the cutest ugliest legs. That evening a large crowd turned out for the annual bonfire at the football field to see the skits each class presented. Friday ended the week with many students wearing orange and black, the school colors. Floats were also built during the week.

Each class voted for two girls for the Court of Roses, and six senior girls were chosen for the Homecoming Court.

In float competition, the Freshmen won first place; Juniors took second; and the Junior High came in third.

On Friday night the Warriors hosted the Aquin Bulldogs as they tried valiantly for a win.

Music for the dance on Saturday night was provided by the group, "Morning Star".

Hary Lam Enrolls at Warren High

Hary Lam is Warren High School's AFS student. Her home is in Coatepeque, Guatemala. Hary's father is the owner of a transportation company that runs busses from Guatemala to Mexico. She has two sisters, ages eleven and twenty, and two brothers, ages twelve and nineteen. Hary herself is seventeen years old.

Here in America, Hary makes her home with the Wilfred Wolfram family.

Hary takes part in the AFS club, girls' volleyball, girls' basketball, FHA and GAA.

I want to say thanks very much for my new experience because I'm the new AFS student for 1976-1977.

I will always thank everybody, my friends, teachers, and also the Warren High School. Some time I will come back to visit Warren High School because I like it so much.

If some day you can visit my country, Guatemala, it also is your country, and my house is also your house. You can come anytime.

I say thanks very much to my friends for helping me in everything.

I also say to my host family—thanks very much.

Sincerely,
Hary Lam

Yearbook Seminar Introduces New Ideas for Echoes '77

This year our yearbook staff started out with very little experience or knowledge about putting a yearbook together. Susan Heller, editor, and layout editor, Jackie Ahlstrom, spent a week in June at the University at Whitewater, attending a yearbook camp. They came back excited and ready to put the 1977 yearbook together. During the year all the editors got the chance to attend a seminar either at the University at Whitewater or the University at Platteville.

The staff started the yearbook in September. Their first deadline was in October which meant working three nights a week. There were five deadlines all together, ranging from October through March.

Student Council Represents the Student Body

Student Council carried on tradition at Warren High School by sponsoring Homecoming Week and the Homecoming Dance. Activities are planned for every day of the week, and the students get a chance to support their team while also having a good time.

During the year, Student Council members attend board meetings, sponsor movie nights and become involved with Student Council exchanges.

Band Members Become Salesmen

Under the direction of Mr. Larry Kear, the Warren High School Marching Band performed at five parades and three half-time shows for the '76-'77 season.

During the summer, the band traveled to Mt. Carrol and Stockton to march in their parades.

The band students elected officers to help Mr. Kear. They are David Iserman, Pres.; Mark Risser, Vice Pres.; Leila Bussman, Sec.; and Sharon Trevethan, Treas.

Over two thousand dollars was raised by hard working band students selling candles, candle holders and apothecary jars to the community.

Yearly activities of the band include Christmas, Winter, and Spring concerts, District Contest and the County Festival held in Warren this year.

School Musicians Entertain Spectators

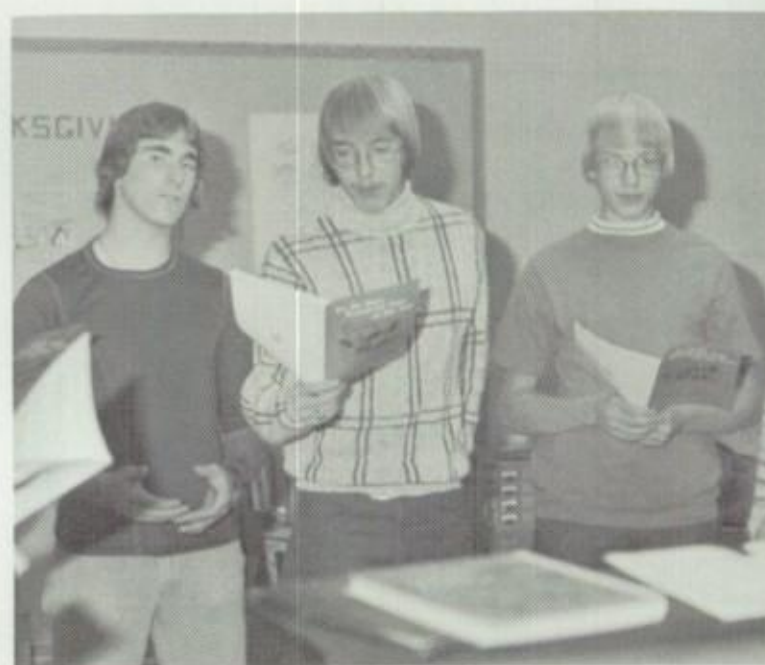

This year's drum major is Dave Iserman; the majorettes are Jackie Eckerman, Michelle Taufmann, Brenda Wybourn, Theresa Homb, and Pam Elliott. Mascots representing Warren this year are Lynda Pinney and Jackie Eckerman. Pep band plays during the half time and between games of every home game. They also play during the pep meetings to give our school more spirit.

Chorus Welcomes Mrs. Johnson Back to Dist. 205

This year chorus is held on Tuesdays and Fridays during 5th hour. Mrs. Johnson chose to return to WHS this year so she now drives from Dubuque to Warren and Apple River for her classes. Plans were made to go to a Swing Choir Clinic in Macomb, but they had to be cancelled because of winter weather. The chorus performed for county officers at the Log Cabin in Galena, they sang at the Christmas Concert and helped host the Conference Festival. Members of the chorus compete in contests in the spring and present a spring concert with the band.

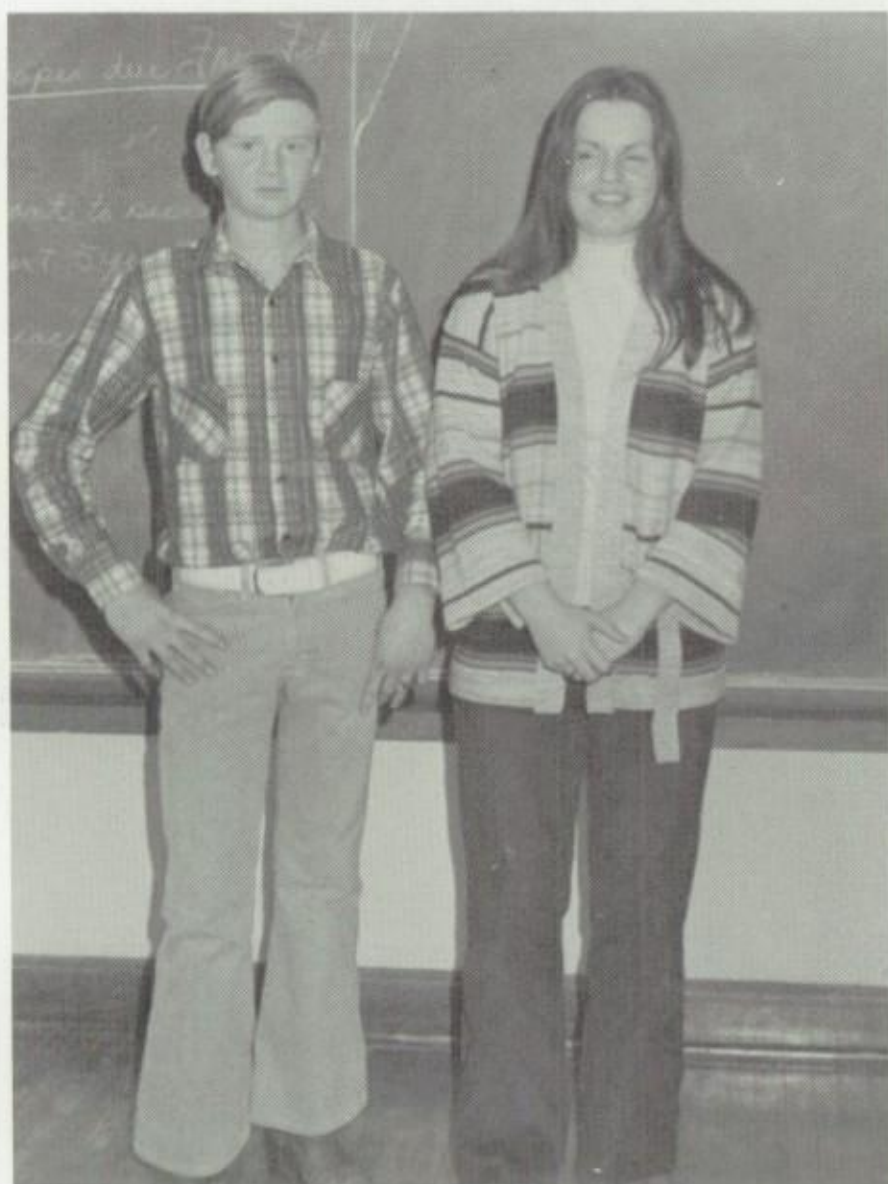

Seven Students Get Work Experience

The Co-op Club has seven members. They are Martha Blair, Ron Hammer, Kevin Kaiser, Randy Leehan, Randy Reed, Jan Schubert and Tim Williams. These students work at places such as the Country Squire in Warren and Atwoods which is located in Stockton.

Class is held every day during 2nd hour with Mrs. Nevel as teacher and advisor. Movies are seen and their different occupations are discussed to make the Co-op class a learning experience as well as a lot of fun. Class attendance plus a minimum of 15 hours at work per week gives each student two credits.

Co-op Club plans an employer-employee banquet in the spring.

VICA Prepares for Leadership in the Working World

"Preparing for leadership in the world of work" is VICA's motto.

This year the club has sold fruit, candy bars, and has put on a bake sale. A basketball game was played between the VICA members and the teachers at the area vocational center.

VICA makes a profit from the vending machines at the center for a trip to Springfield to the annual VICA Skill Olympics contest.

VICA officers from Warren include Brenda Wybourn, who serves as president, and Cliff Klenke, the club's reporter.

Librarians Lend a Helping Hand

This year there are five librarians at WHS who devote time during their study hall to help students find and check out books and other materials. They also shelve returned books.

The librarians are Steve Determan, Jim Goken, Pam Hawes, Susan Neff and Lynne Schmitt. By giving up some of their free time, these people are not only helping their fellow students, but they are also doing a great service for their school.

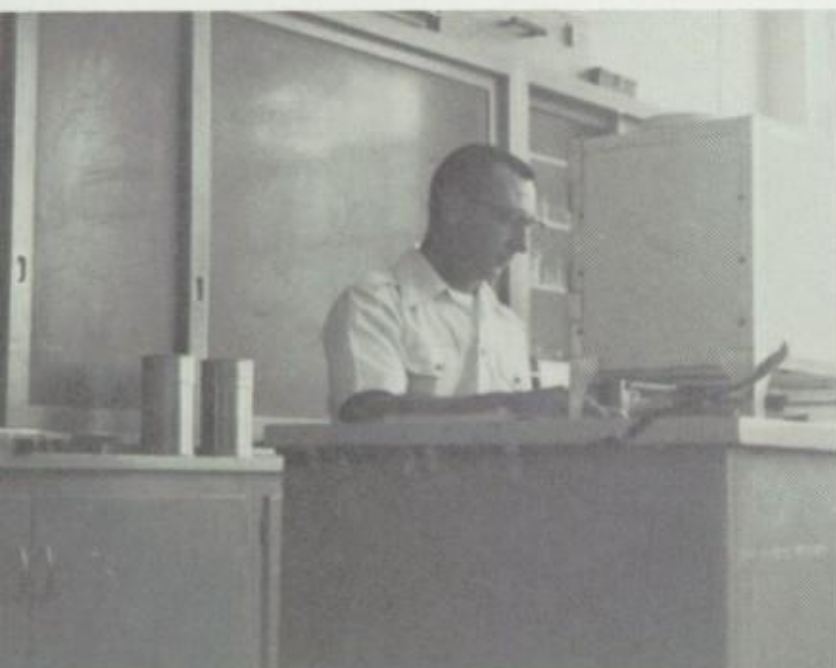

Seven Students Are Inducted Into Honor Society

The students who belong to the National Honor Society are chosen by the high school faculty. Any Sophomore, Junior, or Senior who has a 3.2 grade point average is eligible to be put on the ballot and is considered for possible membership to the club.

Each teacher of the faculty votes secretly on persons whom they think have given service, shows leadership and is of good character. Steve Gollmer was the only Junior selected to the society last year and is held over for the '76-'77 school year. This year two Sophomores, Susan Neff and Joanne Vondra, have been selected. The Juniors are Susan Heller and Howard Tucker. Janice Shubert, Diane Balbach and Kimberly Cox were selected from the Senior Class.

FTA Members Enjoy Student Teaching

FTA creates monthly bulletin boards at the high school and helps host American Education Week. In the spring, members do student teaching in classrooms of their choice. In May, FTA holds a picnic for teachers. A great rivalry has developed in the volley ball game between club members and the faculty.

The FTA officers are as follows: Pres., Steve Gollmer; Vice Pres., Clifford Klenke; Sec.-Treas., Sue Ann Lancaster.

AFS Student Chapter Increases Its Membership

1976 is the second year of the new and growing student AFS chapter. Our ultimate goal includes sending a student from Warren High School to a foreign country. The adult AFS chapter is helping us to reach this goal financially.

Hary Lam is this year's AFS student from Guatamala. Her present home is with the Wilfred Wolfram family.

Office and Elementary Helpers Offer Assistance

Eleven WHS girls have given up their study halls to become grade school aides or office helpers this year.

During their free hours the grade school aides go to the grade school to help the teachers of their choice. They correct papers, tutor the children and help out in many ways.

The office helpers collect absence slips, do errands and are helpful to the secretary.

Go, Fight, Win!

Organizing a snake dance, pep meetings, and bake sales were some activities in which the cheerleaders were involved.

They made a hospitality room for visiting cheerleaders to relax and have refreshments.

Varsity cheerleaders are Lynne Schmitt, Michele Gates, Martha Blair, Sue Ann Lancaster and Diane Balbach. Junior varsity cheerleaders include Sharon Trevethan, Kim Feltmeyer, Kay Pearson, Gail Bussman, and Ann Dubach. The advisors are Miss Klaus and Miss Dubach.

Slave Auction Is Money-Maker for W-Club

The W-Club held their annual slave auction on Feb. 15, 1977, with a total profit of $198.00. They also sold coats and hats. Another successful money-making scheme was their car bash at the Pumpkin Festival which netted them $31.85.

By belonging to the club, members could go skiing, receive their year-books, and go to a Bee-Gees concert in Madison, all free of charge.

The W-Club was also involved in the annual FHA-W-Club hayride at the Paul Ernst farm.

Club officers are President, Jim Krupke; Vice-President, Richard Blair; Secretary, Dale Miller; and Treasurer, Matt Almendinger.

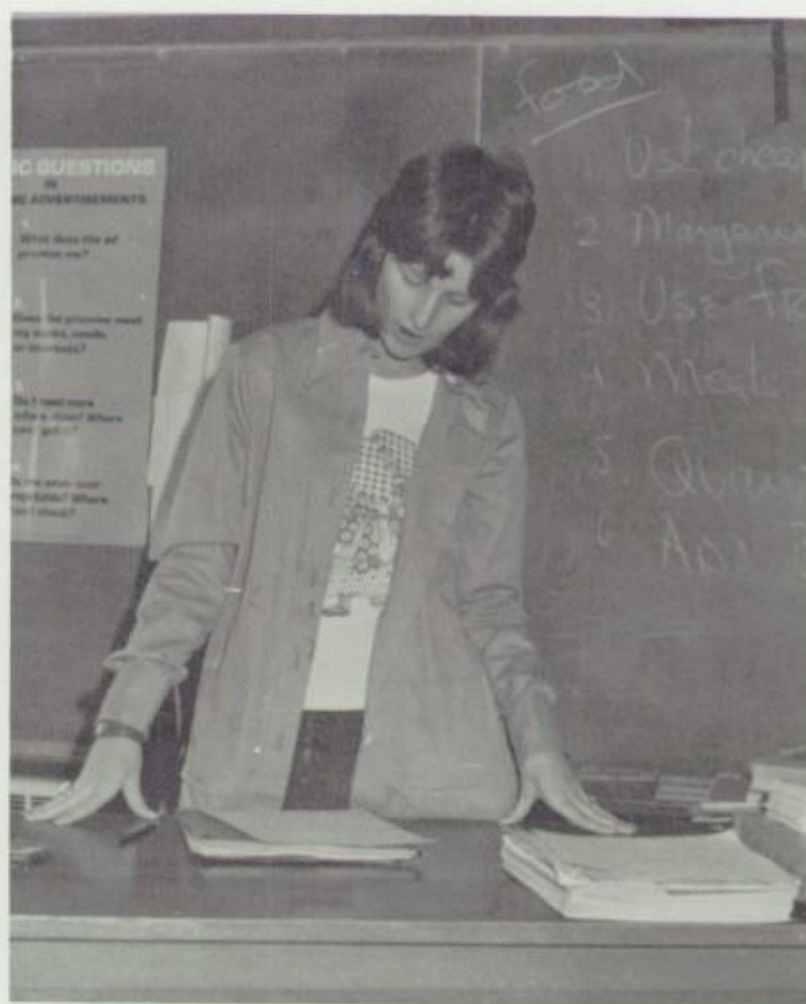

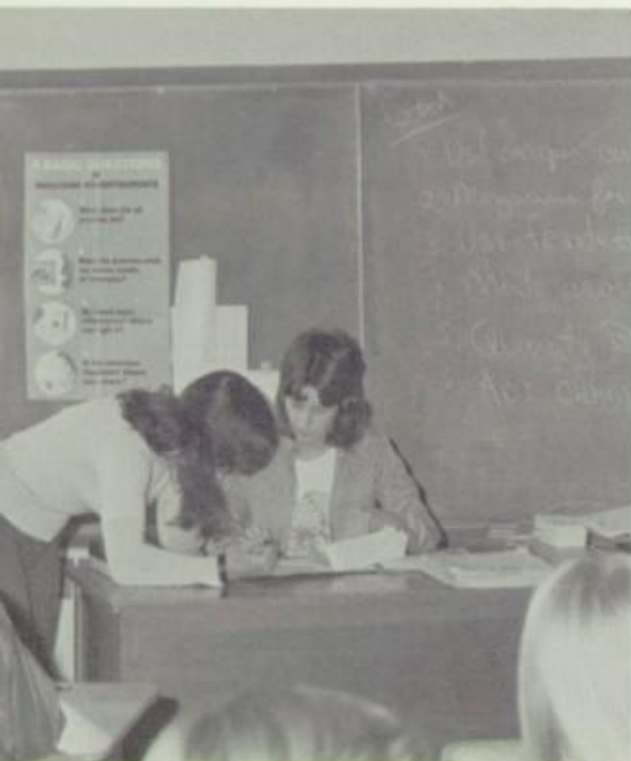

Thirteen lettermen were initiated on Feb. 18, 1977, by wearing strange outfits and carrying eggs. The new members include Doug Kaiser, Freshman; Steve Determan, Tracy Lancaster, Allan McNutt, Rick McWorthy, Ray Pinney, Mark Severson and Mike Sigafus, Sophomores; Mark Davis, Dirk Toay, Howard Tucker and Jeff Upmann, Juniors; and Cliff Klenke, Senior.

Pep Club Aims for More Spirit

This year the Pep Club became more involved with money-making projects to support fan buses. Tee shirts and cushions were sold at football and basketball games. Chances on Warrior lamps and radios were also sold. During Homecoming Week the Pep Club sponsored a Pep Club Day in which all students could dress in Halloween costumes.

The President is Joan Rolando; Vice-President, Jane McFadden; Secretary, Diane Balbach, and Treasurer, Linda Determan. Class representatives are Jane Lethlean, Seniors; Dionne McRae, Juniors; Jackie Eckerman, Sophomores; and Julie Wolff, Freshmen. Mr. Sabinson advises the club.

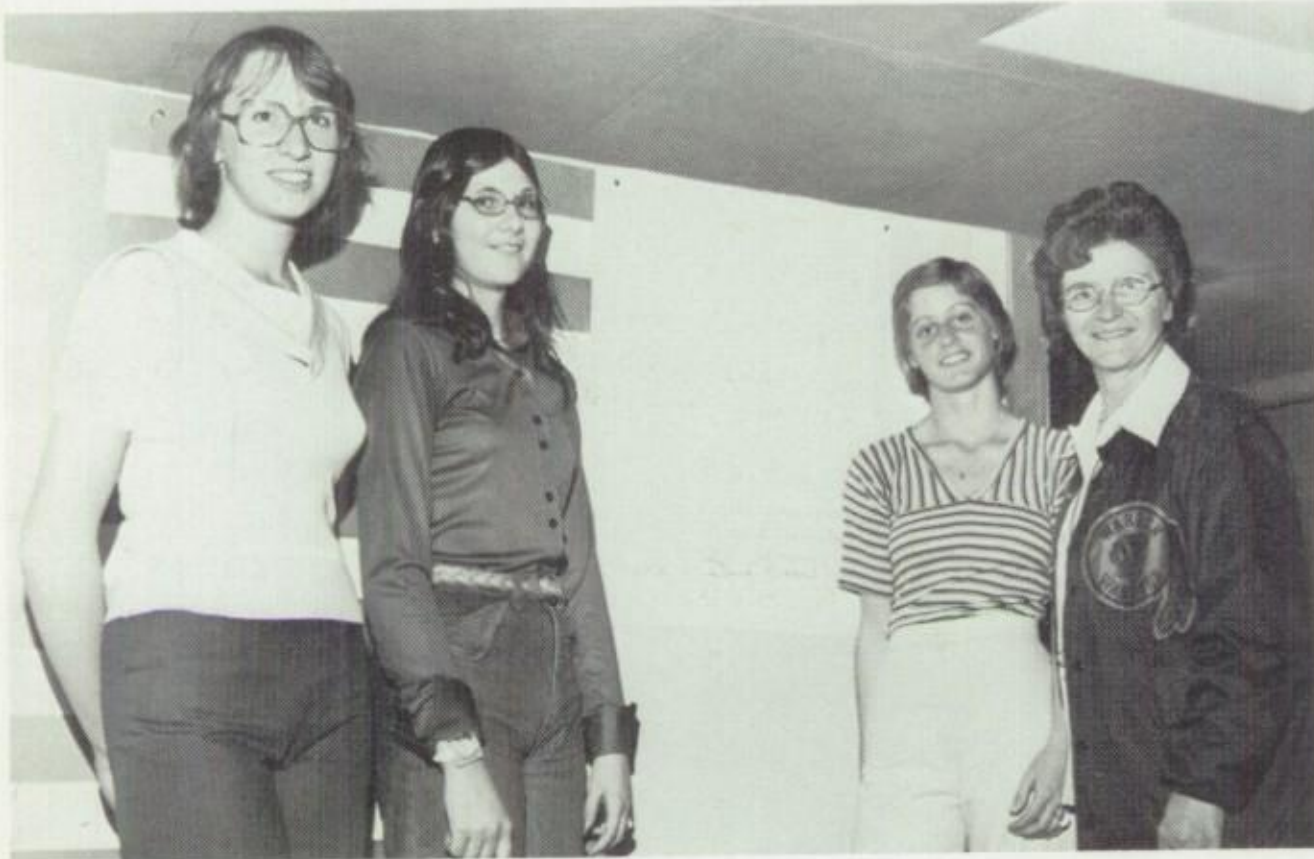

GAA Lives Up to It's Name

Under the guidance of our advisor, Mrs. Bourquin, the Warren GAA never stands idle. This year's officers include Kimberly Cox, Pres.; Lynne Schmitt, Vice Pres.; and Susan Neff, Sec. Treas. Class representatives are Jane Lethlean, Senior; Michelle Taufmann, Junior; Diane Saunders, Sophomore; and Donna Aurand, Freshman.

Their activities include bowling at Lena in the fall, six swimming trips to the Freeport Y.W.C.A., Christmas caroling and parties.

On October 31st a bus load of enthusiastic GAA'ers traveled to Madison, Wisconsin to see "Holiday on Ice."

GAA has the student body eating out of its hands—the candy machine sees to that—and the GAA nets the profit.

Enthusiasm and Involvement Are Keys to FHA's Success

A new school year brought the Warren FHA a new advisor and new activities. Miss Tucker became the FHA advisor at Warren High School.

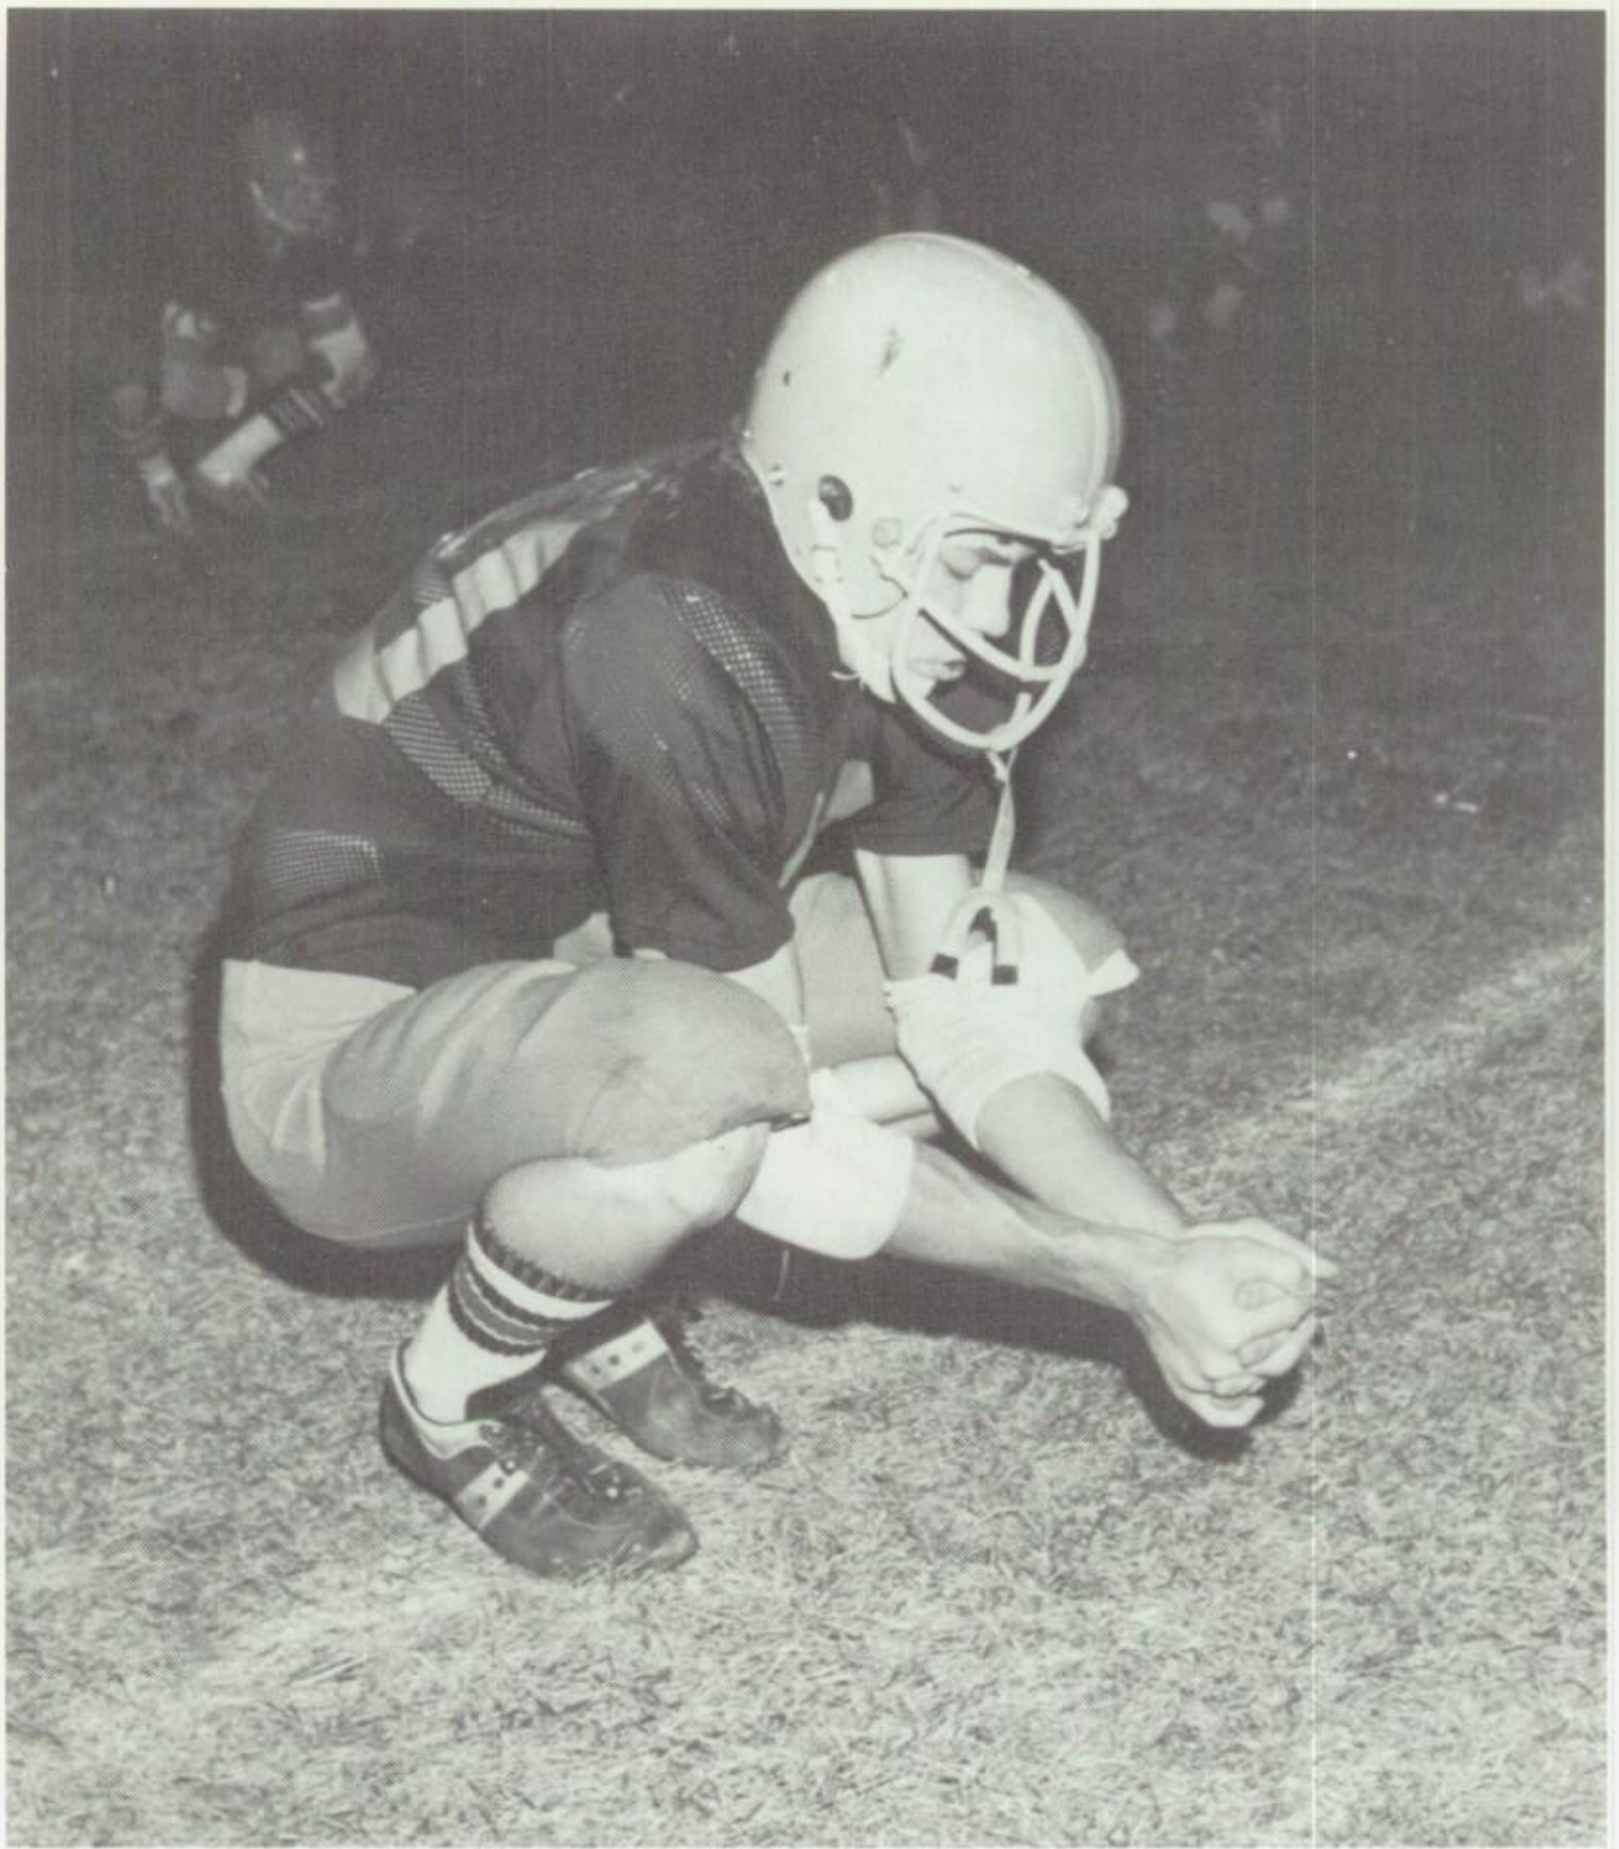

New officers include Sue Ann Lancaster, Pres.; Pam Hawes, Vice Pres.; Deb Saunders, Sec.; Lori Wanless, Treas.; Joan Rolando, Project and Degrees; Julie Ernst, Sunshine Relations; and Susan Heller, Recreation.

The year got off to a good start with the Section Rally at Lena. Warren is honored to have one of its members, Sue Ann Lancaster, elected Section 2A President. Shortly after the rally was the FHA-W-Club hayride at the Ernst's home. The FHA also had their usual brat stand at the Pumpkin Festival.

An important fall activity was the Father-Daughter banquet. Much preparation went into the banquet, and it was a huge success. The annual FHA-GAA caroling party was held in December. In the spring, the annual Mother-Daughter banquet brought the year to a close.

Seniors who lettered in football and basketball are Matt Almendinger, Dave Kaiser, Jim Thompson, and Ted Zeigle.

Lettermen in football are Richard Blair, Dean Brinkmeier, Mark Holland, Brian Homb, Jim Krupke, Cliff Klenke, Dale Miller, and Jeff Vrstal.

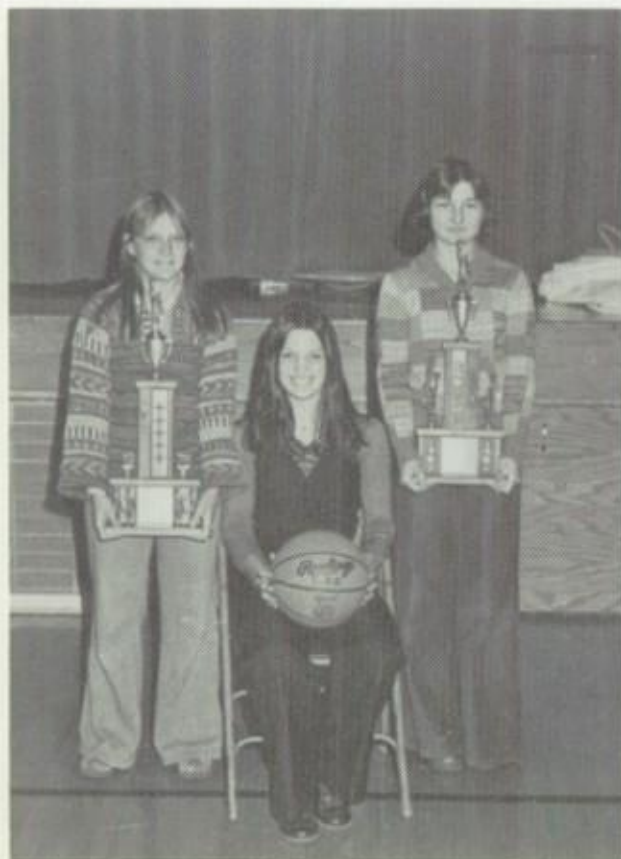

Lettermen in basketball are Dave Davis, Steve Gollmer, and Tim McNutt.

Warriors Take Conference and Regional Titles

The Warren Warriors had a great season under the new coaching supervision of Mr. Sabinson. They tipped off the season with first place at the Turkey Tournament in Lena and then went on to take first place at the Forreston Holiday Tournament in Forreston. The Warriors took the conference title with a record of 11-1 and 22-2 overall. They then advanced to the Regional Tournament where they took first place. This win took the Warriors to Port Byron-Riverdale for the Sectional Tournament.

Warriors Travel to Port Byron Riverdale Sectionals

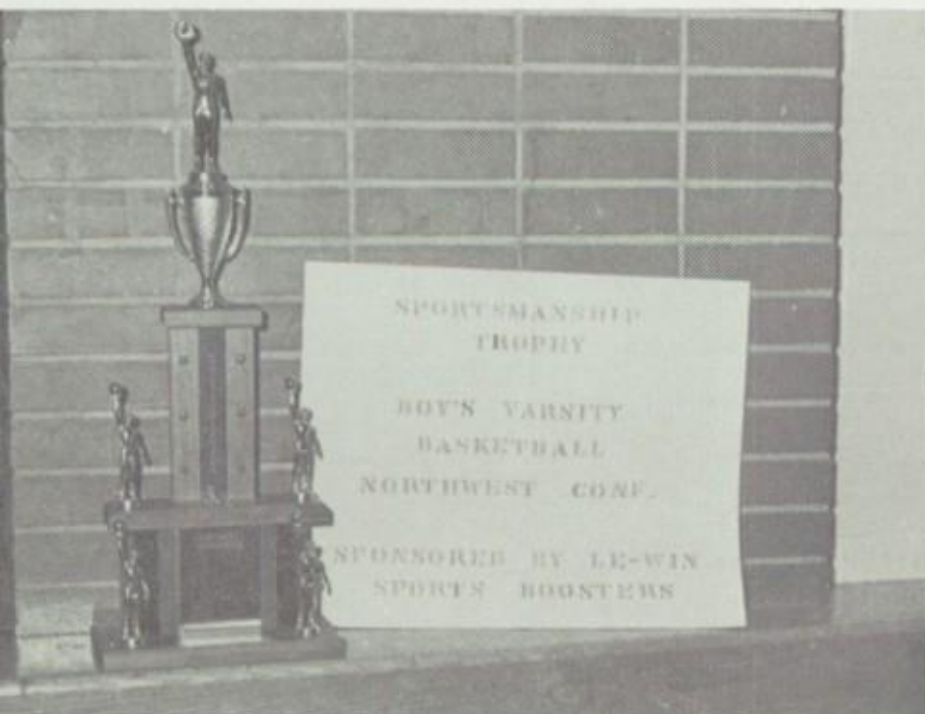

On Feb. 25, 1977, the Warriors advanced to the Sectionals.

With the upcoming game against Sterling-Newman, Warren fans provided buses to the game. Seven fan buses plus a chartered player bus traveled to Port Byron. Police escorted the winning Warriors to the gym on their return.

Friday afternoon a gala pep meeting was held for students and the public. The community provided eight buses for the game against Morrison. Many area towns backed the Warriors.

At the final buzzer, with a score of 58-55, the Warriors had lost a heartbreaker.

Upon returning home, everyone assembled for congratulatory speeches by Mr. Meyer, Mr. Pratt and Mr. Sabinson.

Students Prepare for the Future

This year fifty-five students from Warren High School chose to take one of twelve classes offered at the AVC. Classes at the high school range from independent study, where students work on their own, to P. E. classes where there are up to seventy-four students in one class. The P. E. classes this year are coed. Both girls and boys learn new games ranging from wrestling and flag football to volleyball and volleytennis. Classes in science, math, social studies, industrial arts and home economics offer a wide variety of studies in each area.

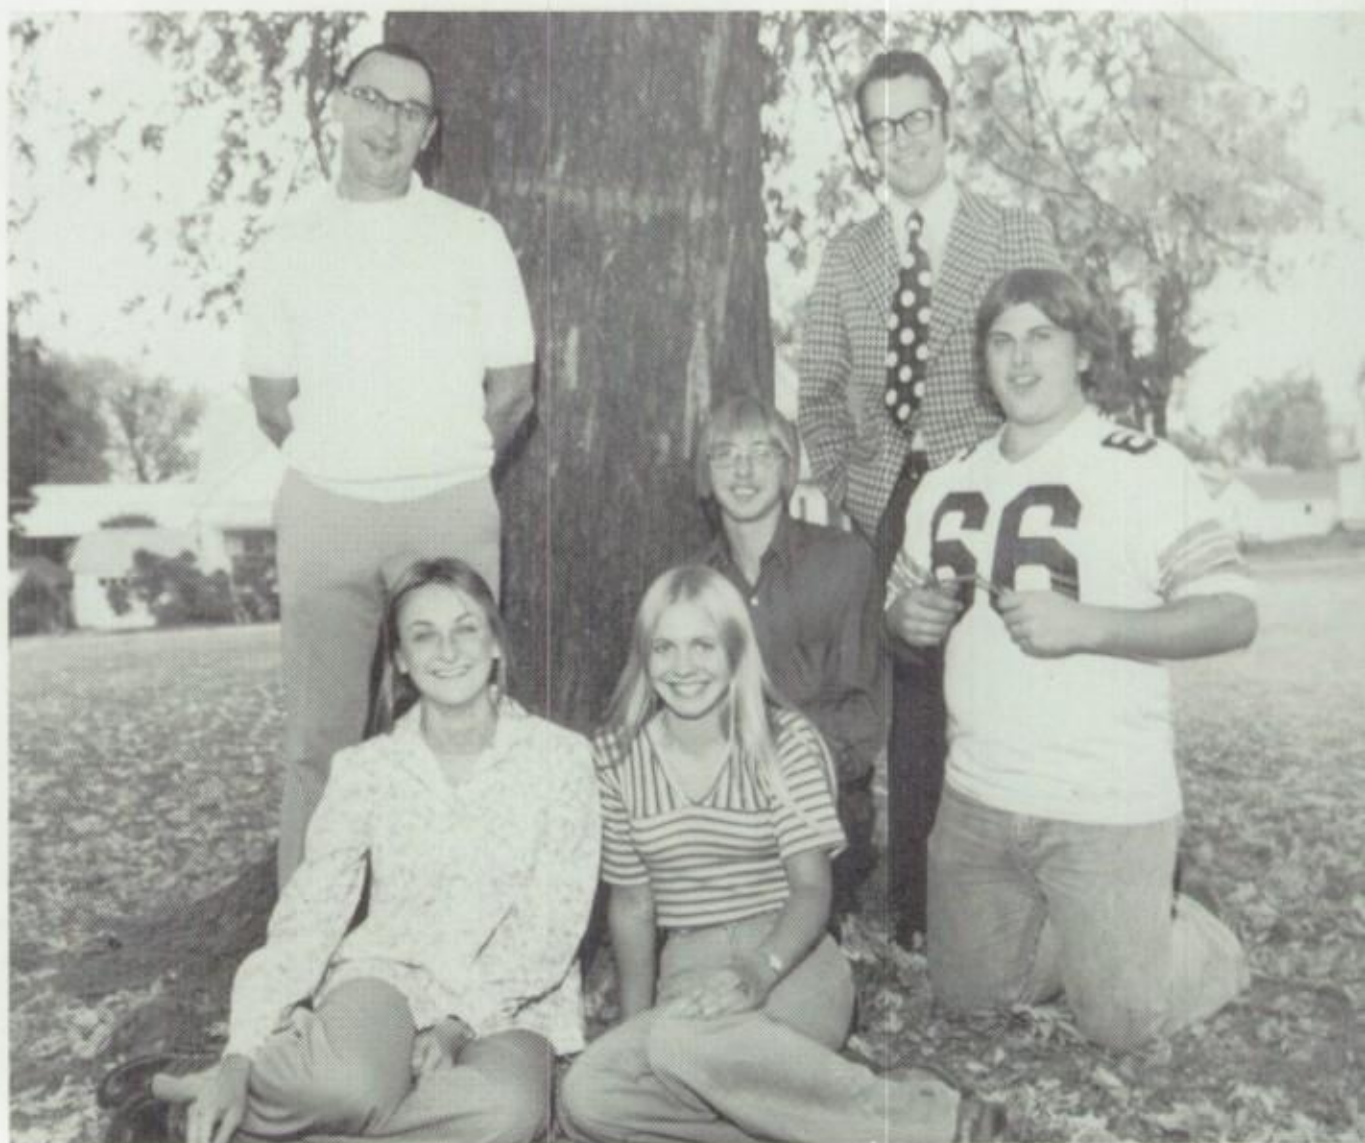

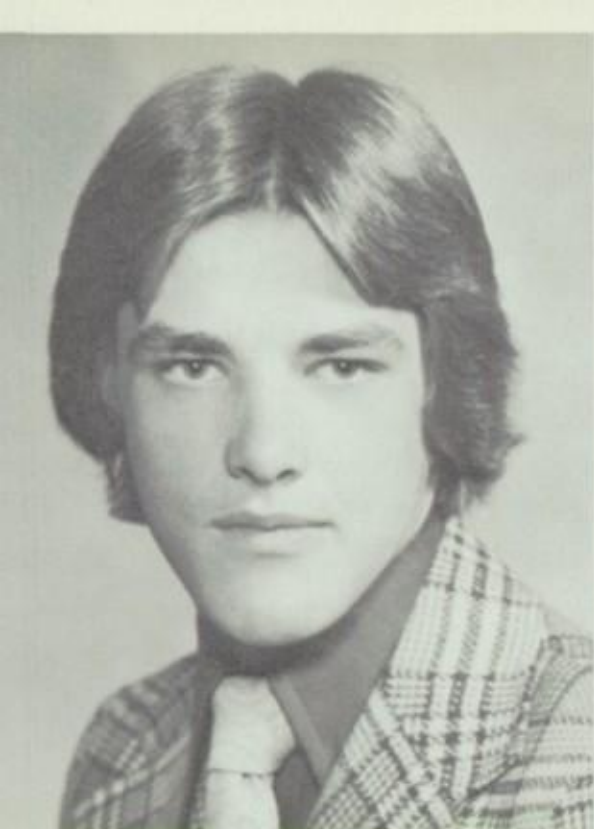

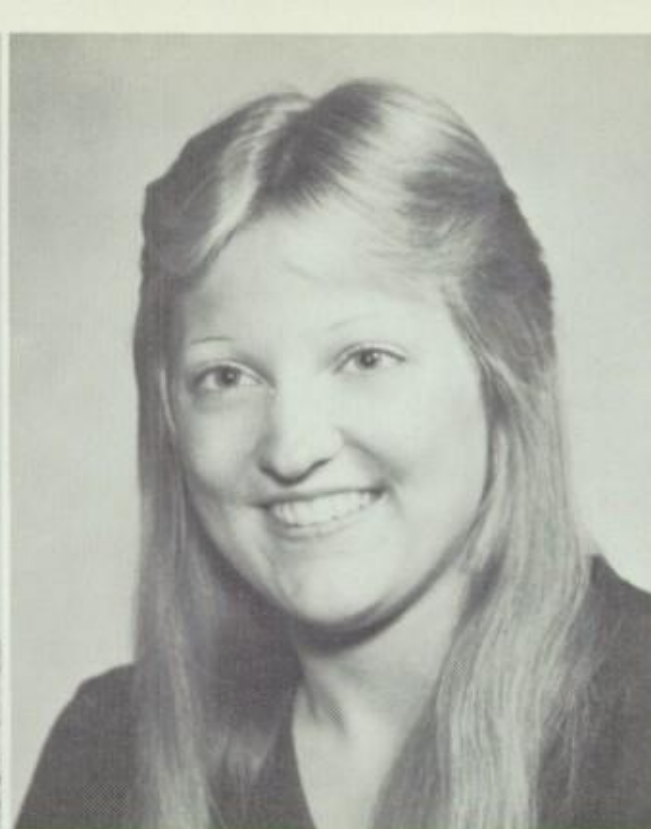

It's an Ending . . . But Only the Beginning

This year the Senior Class has been kept busy ordering class pictures and being measured for their caps and gowns. Big decisions such as what colleges to go to or what kind of jobs are available are frequent topics of discussion. These happy times in Warren High School will always be remembered and treasured as life goes on, and new experiences unfold.

Faculty Strives to Give Students A Better Understanding of Education

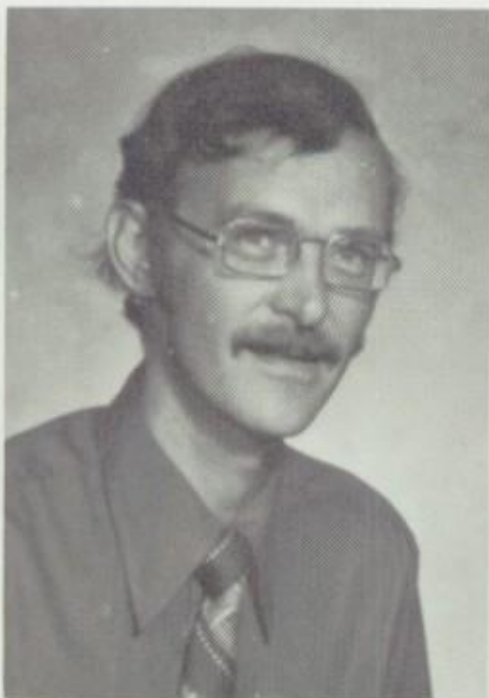

The high school faculty consists of twenty members who guide, help, lead and are friends to students.

Teachers are friends outside of school too. Thursday night bowlers consist of Mr. Nielson, Mr. Gast, top bowler whose average is 170, Mr. Kear, Mr. Smith, Mr. Bohnsack and Mr. Stake. Mr. Stake, captain of the team, commented, "We're not very good, but we have a lot of fun!"

All in all teachers spend a lot of time and effort contributing to the betterment of our school.

The Echoes staff of '77 sincerely hope that you have enjoyed this yearbook as much as we have enjoyed making it for you.

Many long hours of hard work went into getting the book finished, and I'd like to thank all the people who have helped make it possible. My sincere thanks go to Kim Cox, Photographer; Linda Determan and Dionne McRae, Business Editors; Jackie Ahlstrom and Jackie Eckerman, Layout Editors; Rosanne Robey, Managing Editor; and anyone else who helped make the book possible.

My special appreciation goes to Mrs. Danielson, our advisor, who also was the typist for our book, and to Mr. Persona for his pictures. Mr. Pratt was also a great help by loaning us his camera and by taking many pictures.
